

Excerpt from p. 100 of "Washington Confidential", published by Crown Publisher, New York City:

"We are hopeful these things will come to an end but do not expect too much. That is because we know the CIA--Central Intelligence Agency--is loaded with Commies at the lower level, with some seeping right up into the upper brackets."

The above is taken from a section entitled, "The Little Red Her-rings."